FOREWORD

In this, the first year of the history of Margaret McEvoy High School in Macon, Georgia, the motto, "Forward Ever, Backward Never", expresses the aims of the McEvoy girls and the faculty. We hope to move forward by achieving certain goals: to build character through everyday experiences of school life, to obtain scholastic achievement, and to be more compatible.

That the memories of Margaret McEvoy High School and its standards will always remain in our hearts, we the staff of the 1957-58 annual present to you, the McEvoy family, the first edition of the

His consideration, encouragement and understanding for everyone has made him a friend to all. His friendly greetings, and his cheerfulness have made our first year at Margaret McEvoy a most enjoyable and pleasant one. We appreciate his devotion to our new school and his guidance in leading the faculty and student body. Although he is leaving us, he shall long be remembered as a wonderful man and principal.

Social Science Classes Visit State Legislature

Thirty-seven girls from the Social Science classes have been selected to go on a trip to Atlanta to visit the State Legislature and Cyclorama in Atlanta.

The girls, who will make reports to their respective classes upon their return, will go by bus on an all day trip to the state Capitol.

The teachers who will attend are Mrs. Jim Burt, Government and American History teacher, and Miss Mary Weaver, Civics teacher. The girls are as follows:

11th grade, Patricia Weathers, Patsy Hunt, Anne Cregors, Brenda Wade, Runette Ware, Wyenne Pick, Delia Yawn, Jewellene McNeil, Linda Williams, Joyce Stansell, Dianne Hummel, King, Sandra Wo Williams, Mar King, Pegg, beth Hall

ANN WALKER
Editor in Chief

On February 10, seven girls from the Bonnie Blue Print Business and Editorial staffs attended a Journalism Workshop at Lanier Senior High in order to improve this school paper.

The lecturers were Dan Kitchen, Worth McDougal, and Charles Kapp from the Henry Grady School of Journalism at the University of Georgia. The Macon papers were represented by Jim Chapman, Bill Ott, Sam Glassman, and Lane Williams.

After a general assembly in the auditorium students were allowed to participate in classes of news and feature, writing, editorials, sports and advertising.

Those who attended from McEvoy were: Ann Walker, Joyce Stansell, Phyllis Casey, D'Ree Deen, Clarene Wood, Sandra Valentine, and Carolyn Coe, with faculty advisor, Mrs. Julia Lanier.

Other papers represented were: Lanier Senior-Poet Leader, Lanier Junior-Junior Hi Journal,

Tornado Strikes McEvoy Gym

Friday night, February 7, the McEvoy girls were greatly disappointed at having to postpone the two Lanier basketball games scheduled in the gymnasium. The greatest heartbreak was the damage done to the gymnasium roof and floor. It was caused by a tornado which struck here the last of January.

Friday night between halftime, Mrs. Jeannette Chambers' Sup. 200 and Mrs. Carolyn Hattrich's Sup. Gym C were to play o.f the volleyball championship game. Following the basketball game Student Council was to sponsor a Sock-Hop honoring the Lanier and Savannah teams.

Home Ec. Dept. Sponsors Speaker

Mrs. Dorrah's homemaking class sponsored a guest speaker for the girls taking home economics. The speaker, Miss Robbie Ladd is home economist for the Georgia Power Company. She spoke to the tenth and eleventh graders on February 3, on "Snacks for Teenagers."

Miss Ladd has given talks at rebounder.

Jimmy Hendrix, a transfer from Pembroke, Georgia, reached a grand total of 189 points in 17 tilts in his first season with the Poets. Jimmy, who is 5'10", plays forward and is a senior this year.

In J. W. Spivey, Lanier not only boasts of a fine player, but a lieutenant colonel in the R.O.-T.C. unit, as well. One of the most agile players, he has scored 145 points in 17 games. He is a senior, plays the position of guard, and stands 5'11".

This is the first year with the Poets for the ex-Moultrie "Packers" basketball coach, Martin Allman. He fills the position of assistant basketball coach for the boys.

"Head-man" Tom Porter is near the completion of his second year coaching the team. The Poet's record to date is 13-6, with a 5-6 Region I, Class AAA mark, which puts them in fifth place for the region competition. One more victory will put the boys in 4th place and make them eligible for the state AAA tournament, held annually in Atlanta.

Cone has sent to her acquaintances. Her family moved in December, when her father was transferred from the Naval Ordnance Plant to take command of a ship in the Pacific. The family resides in Garden Grove, near Long Beach, California.

A leisurely trip across the continent enabled them to take in the many interesting sights—the tumbleweed and cedar of New Mexico and the broad expanse of Texas. Shortly after she reached California, she visited Disneyland with her family and enjoyed it im-
